Bill Gates Rule #2

"The world won't care about your self-esteem. The world will expect you to accomplish something BEFORE you feel good about yourself."

I wish it were otherwise, but I think Gates is right. Not that many people care about how you feel, but a lot of people care about what you do.

You can choose to be upset about that, or you can choose to do something. And that's not all that bad. One of the quickest ways to build you self-esteem is to build your skills. Competence leads to confidence.
